Generous givers are already Paving The Way to meeting that goal, with $2,985.09 given to date.

WELCOME

Welcome to worship. We hope it will be a quiet space for you to spend time with God amid life's busyness and storms. We're glad you're here!

God guides us through life's storms, and the psalmist calls us "extol him in the congregation of the people" (Psalm 107:32, NRSV). We praise you, God, for being our safe haven.

CALL TO WORSHIP: Psalm 17:6, 7, 15 (Paraphrased)

We call upon you Lord—trusting you will answer.

We ask for your listening ear. We ask that you hear our heart songs.

Your steady love is refuge for the weary—protecting us against life's storms.

As for me, I will seek your face every day.

When I awake, it will be enough for me to know you are near.

What more could we ask than your presence day by day?

Thank you for choosing to walk by our side.

PRAYER FOCUS

Remember in your prayers those who are in the midst of struggles within their families. Scripture reminds us family struggles are part and parcel of living. Jesus even goes so far as to remind us, sometimes our desire to follow him will create difficulties within our closest relationships. So, please pray for those facing such challenges. May they able to move beyond blame and fear toward health and wholeness—even if divisions cannot be mended at this time.
