OTHER WITNESSES ABOUT CHRIST

There is much historical evidence, besides the Bible, that Jesus did indeed live and that his life, death and resurrection were the foundation of Christianity.

One famous non-Christian historian named Flavius Josephus lived about A.D. 37. He focused primarily on Jewish history but also wrote the following words: “Now there was about this time, Jesus, a wise man ... a doer of wonderful works. He drew over to him both many of the Jews and many of the Gentiles.”

The writings of Josephus provide important extra-biblical information about the people, customs and geography during Jesus’ time. Origen, a Christian author who wrote around the year 240, said Josephus “did not accept Jesus as Christ.” But by mentioning Jesus in his history texts, Josephus added credibility to the Lord’s earthly life.
