WORLD COMMUNION SUNDAY

Around the globe, countless gifted and qualified people face financial obstacles that hinder them from preparing for the vocation God has given them, especially youth and young adults. What would it look like if the church today imitated Jesus' affirmation of the full dignity and God-given potential of all women and men—especially those who've historically been assigned to the world's margins? On World Communion Sunday your giving helps to provide scholarships for national and international graduate students whom God has gifted to learn and to serve. Will you give generously on World Communion Sunday to equip gifted and qualified students from around the globe to become the world-changers God created them to be? Please write on the memo line of your check "World Communion Sunday".

THE BELOVED COMMUNITY

One Minnesota pastor often called the congregation he served "the beloved community." This is a good description for all followers of Christ. We should strive to make the church a community where love flows easily and joyfully between members.

Church father Tertullian (A.D. 160-220) reported that the Romans said of the first Christians, "See how they love one another!" Any faithful, dedicated group of believers can and should be a beloved community.
