WORLD COMMUNION SUNDAY

Today is World Communion Sunday. This is a day set aside for Christians to join in a world-wide awareness that whatever one's skin color, language, or economic situation we are all sharing in the bread and cup of communion that unites us.

We celebrate the meal that unites us as a Christian family where ever we are living on this planet. Each year United Methodists are invited to give toward a special offering to help with Ethnic scholarships in the US and abroad. Since apportionments (first mile mission giving) are also a part of our world-wide outreach, designating a gift to this ministry would also fit the spirit of World Communion. "For God so loved the world that God gave God's only son... that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life." God so loved the world...and invites us to do the same. Amen.
